

English

Non- Fiction

Recount

Information text:

people who live in different places of the World

all about butterflies

using labels and captions to present information

Instruction text:

how to climb a mountain

Using non-fiction books and atlases to find information.

Reading text on the internet to find information.

Fiction

Diary writing:

Re-writing a story as a diary

Writing Grace Darling's diary

Maths

*Giving and following directions.

*Role-play area - 'Doctor's Surgery' - measuring and comparing height, length, time and weight.

*Symmetry in butterflies, symmetrical patterns.

Super Starter: Visit from RNLI Education Officer.

Oceans and Continents

Fantastic Finish: Fund raising event in school hall - cake sale in aid of RNLI.

Art/DT (Including Cooking)

*Lighthouse scenes using paint, felt pen and sponge printing.

*Using paint to replicate patterns on butterfly wings.

*Using a grid to make symmetrical patterns.

Geography and History

*The life of Grace Darling - why her life was unusual.

*Why is Grace Darling famous?

*Lifeboats and lighthouses long ago and their role in keeping people safe.

*How do modern lifeboats keep people safe nowadays?

*The importance of lifeboats and lighthouses around the coast of Britain.

* Using atlases and globes to locate the World's oceans and continents.

* Finding out about the lives of other people in the World - The Bajau People.

*Why do butterflies live on all of the continents of the World, but not Antarctica?

Science

(In separate science book.)

Animals, including humans

*Features of animals and humans.

*Keeping fit and healthy - hygiene, diet and exercise.

*Properties of materials - natural and man made.

*Sorting materials according to their properties.

Computing

Internet safety.

Using the mouse and keyboard to control items on the screen.

Using a search engine to find text to read on screen (group work).

RE

*What happens in The Easter Story?

*How do Christians celebrate Easter?

Music

Using percussion instruments to make hot and cold soundscapes.