“We have all something special,
that only we can give.”

News: It has been joyous to have so many children back in school and the sound of laughter, chatter and learning resonating around the classrooms and corridors once again. We are really looking forward to seeing Woodpecker Class and the isolating Kingfisher children back on Monday. Children in Owls and Robins have contributed to our lovely new display based on the book You Be You by Linda Kranz, which looks at how we are all different and that these differences are what make the world so interesting and special. Parent Consultations will take place for most classes during the last week of term and for Robins during the first week back after Easter. These will once again be conducted by phone and appointments will be available to book online via ParentMail from Monday 15th at 9.00am until midday on Sunday 28th. And finally, Mrs Glover is wondering if anyone might be able to kindly donate an unwanted TV for the Breakfast Club, plus any remnants of wool for the children to use. Please contact the office if you are able to help. Thank you.
