

1	Barker was sick in the car. We were in the car park.
2	The goose did win. She got to the barn door before the horse or the sheepdog.
3	The hairy fairy sat on the chair all day. There was hair on the floor and on the chair.
4	The first birds was Cockatoo. The second bird was Hummingbird. The third was Crow.
5	Our house is too small. Our house is messy and loud.
6	The oil an out of the house. It sank into the soft soil by the door.
7	Dad made a list. We got cake, milkshakes and party plates.
8	We gave the mouse bits of cheese to eat. The mouse squeaked. Mum screamed loudly.
9	In the land of animals it was dark all the time. They had a hard life.
10	The children came out of their homes. They went up the hill and into a hole.
11	The angry bull charged at the children, snorting and tossing his head.
12	Jamie ignored the bullies but their cruel taunts really hurt her feelings.
13	Hansel and Gretel wept in despair as they realised they were totally lost in the woods.
14	Raj shouted gleefully as he squirted his little brother with his super-sized water pistol.
15	The hungry cat waited patiently and then pounced as the little mouse scuttled by.
16	As I hoisted up the heavy bag of coal, I could feel my knees tremble.
17	"It's the holidays!" screamed the children as they raced out of school.
18	In the middle of the night, the wailing noise frightened her out of her wits. What could it be?
19	The small black dog was trotting towards the park, looking out for squirrels to catch.
20	The giant strode over the fields, grinding his teeth angrily and rubbing his hands.

Blue Books 1-10

21	Mum left a dish of cold beef on the shelf and Barker jumped up to get it.
22	That poor goose has no chance of winning and the sheepdog is not as fast as I am.
23	The tooth fairy creeps upstairs, nips into his bedroom and swops the tooth for a coin.
24	No one will choose me. I look too dull to be a king.
25	We go to the park to have a knockabout in the playground with a football.
26	We will play together and fight with pointy swords and sticks.
27	We go to the checkout to pay. The girl puts all the stuff in a non-plastic bag and gives it to Dave.
28	We have to feed that greedy beast three sacks of hay each morning.
29	He sniffed the lid, untied it and peeped into the box. The lid slipped off.
30	The king poked the Pied Piper in the chest and said, "I will give you just one bag of gold."
31	Five kings came out of the cave and stole the gold.
32	I will shine a light at the mouse and it will leave the cave first, with no noise.

1	Barker was sick in the car. We were in the car park.
2	The goose did win. She got to the barn door before the horse or the sheepdog.
3	The hairy fairy sat on the chair all day. There was hair on the floor and on the chair.
4	The first birds was Cockatoo. The second bird was Hummingbird. The third was Crow.
5	Our house is too small. Our house is messy and loud.
6	The oil an out of the house. It sank into the soft soil by the door.
7	Dad made a list. We got cake, milkshakes and party plates.
8	We gave the mouse bits of cheese to eat. The mouse squeaked. Mum screamed loudly.
9	In the land of animals it was dark all the time. They had a hard life.
10	The children came out of their homes. They went up the hill and into a hole.
11	The angry bull charged at the children, snorting and tossing his head.
12	Jamie ignored the bullies but their cruel taunts really hurt her feelings.
13	Hansel and Gretel wept in despair as they realised they were totally lost in the woods.
14	Raj shouted gleefully as he squirted his little brother with his super-sized water pistol.
15	The hungry cat waited patiently and then pounced as the little mouse scuttled by.
16	As I hoisted up the heavy bag of coal, I could feel my knees tremble.
17	"It's the holidays!" screamed the children as they raced out of school.
18	In the middle of the night, the wailing noise frightened her out of her wits. What could it be?
19	The small black dog was trotting towards the park, looking out for squirrels to catch.
20	The giant strode over the fields, grinding his teeth angrily and rubbing his hands.

Blue Books 1-10

21	Mum left a dish of cold beef on the shelf and Barker jumped up to get it.
22	That poor goose has no chance of winning and the sheepdog is not as fast as I am.
23	The tooth fairy creeps upstairs, nips into his bedroom and swops the tooth for a coin.
24	No one will choose me. I look too dull to be a king.
25	We go to the park to have a knockabout in the playground with a football.
26	We will play together and fight with pointy swords and sticks.
27	We go to the checkout to pay. The girl puts all the stuff in a non-plastic bag and gives it to Dave.
28	We have to feed that greedy beast three sacks of hay each morning.
29	He sniffed the lid, untied it and peeped into the box. The lid slipped off.
30	The king poked the Pied Piper in the chest and said, "I will give you just one bag of gold."
31	Five kings came out of the cave and stole the gold.
32	I will shine a light at the mouse and it will leave the cave first, with no noise.