Low	Prevent Lead (Emma Mercer) to undertake local Prevent training. Annual Staff and Governor Safeguarding updates	✓ Annual Staff / Governor Training September 2020
Due to the nature of the village, children have a lack of knowledge, empathy and understanding of people from different faiths and cultures.	RE locally agreed syllabus to be taught across the school with opportunities arranged for the children to meet people from different faiths. All racist and extreme views are challenged and dealt with according to school policy. Positive role models from all faiths and cultures are used across the curriculum.	Low	Identify and plan visitors into school to reflect the faiths being taught in RE. RE Lead to RE agreed syllabus to staff. Rolling programme for RE in place.	Ongoing e.g. visit to school by Northampton Imam, trip to mosque and annual trips to Sparkenhoe, Leicester. RE Syllabus disseminated.
Staff are unaware of the risk factors and indicators of radicalisation / extremism and are therefore unable to identify those at risk.	Training held for all staff as part of the Child Protection and Safeguarding updates.	Low	Staff Safeguarding Update Schedule. Staff Meeting dissemination of updates from NSCP.	Ongoing – see Staff Meeting and Governor Meeting Agenda.
