News: What a busy week! To mark National Poetry Day, Junior children watched Amanda Gorman reading her poem “The Hill We Climb” at President Biden’s inauguration. We discussed some of the vocabulary, its context and its meaning. The whole school enjoyed watching the legendary Michael Rosen performing his poem “Chocolate Cake” - much laughter was to be had! Children in Woodpeckers achieved their Bikeability Certificates and the tutors spoke highly of their excellent behaviour and good manners. Well done! Mr Howard came to visit Owls & Robins, bringing “ponds” to school, teaming with stream wildlife as part of their Science Habitats topic. The children had a wonderful afternoon – thank you Mr Howard! We welcomed Rev. Miranda back to Clipston and she led Class Assemblies for Woodpecker and Robin Classes. Last week’s Harvest Festival raised over £202 for our link school in Karisalpatti, India. Thank you too, for your generous donations for the Jubilee Food Bank.
