Palindrome Day!

News: Term 4 has got off to a fast-paced start and all the children seem keen and eager to be back at school. IN assemblies this we have been discussing Palindrome Day and also the concept of digital ambigrams. Our Christian Virtue this term is Forgiveness and children made sensible and insightful comments during our discussions about Caesar Molebasi (a social justice campaigner from South Africa) and his thoughts on this theme. Following our work in school to mark Safer Internet Day earlier this month, please find attached a helpful leaflet regarding social media. We are all really looking forward to seeing everyone in their pyjamas for World Book Day next Thursday – further information is also attached. Some children have already returned their wooden spoons which have been ingeniously turned into book characters – please could all spoons be returned by Wednesday 2nd March. Miss Glascodine has been in school this week as she prepares to return at the end of her Maternity Leave in September. Parent Consultation slots are now live and can be booked online. And finally, we have welcomed Mrs Michelle Martin to Clipston. She will be providing some office support as we approach the busy end of the financial year, during Mrs Rhodes’ absence.
